

Board of Trustees

BOARD OFFICERS

ALLISON HALL-HART Ph.D. CO-CHAIR, BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Career in public administration, retiring in 2005 as city manager for Irvine, CA. Since her retirement from the city of Irvine, she has served as Executive Vice President and Board member of The Energy Coalition which advises and educates communities regarding a sustainable, equitable new energy economy. She has served on multiple boards, both public and private. She and her husband recently relocated to Tuftonboro from southern California. Her roots in our community are deep - the Hall family's cottage on Lake Wentworth dates back to the late 1800s. Serving third year of first term.

JAIME LAURENT CO-CHAIR, BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Retired Dean of Campus Affairs at Brewster Academy, Wolfeboro, NH. Prior to that, career in education including Department Chair, Director of Special Services, Principal and teacher at the K-PG levels. Resides in Meredith, NH. Serving third year of second term.

KEIRON (KERRY) LYNCH SECRETARY

Career-long banker, retired as Chief Payments Officer and Chief Risk Officer at a regional bank in the Philadelphia area. Prior to that, executive positions at Visa, Inc. and BNY Mellon. Certified Treasury Professional. Served as a Director at a charitable foundation. Currently is Financial Secretary at community church. Active with a variety of Lakes Region conservation organizations. NH Commercial Boating license. Resides in Melvin Village, NH. Serving second year of second term.

MARY SIMPSON TREASURER

Retired local CPA with experience as Business Manager of the Wolfeboro Camp School, Controller at Brewster Academy and Assistant Controller at Bald Peak Colony Club. Prior to that was a CPA and Partner at a Wolfeboro CPA firm preparing financial statements and tax returns for local small business clients and several non-profit organizations. Has served as Treasurer for Wolfeboro Area Meals on Wheels, First Night Wolfeboro and Rust Pond Association. Has lived on Rust Pond for 35 years and has sailed, kayaked, canoed and skated on over forty lakes in the area. Serving first year of first term.

BOARD MEMBERS

NANCY BLACK

Recently retired professional dental hygienist with 43 years' experience. Served in executive board roles at several local non-profits in the children and teens education field. Active volunteer at church and at the Museum, including the following committees: Capital Campaign, Exhibits, and Ice Out event. Resides in Wolfeboro, NH. Serving third year of first term.

ANTHONY BO

Anthony is the owner of Yellow Dog NH, LLC, a full-service project and property management company serving the Lakes Region. He is a graduate of NYU. He is originally from Laconia, NH, now residing with his wife and two sons in Moultonborough. Having grown up on Lake Winnepesaukee, he is active boating enthusiast. In addition to his work with NHBM, he is on the Board of the Gunstock Ski Club.

BOB CONRAD

Over 35 years of semiconductor industry executive and technical experience, spanning microcontrollers, digital signal processors, analog and discrete products in automotive, communications, storage, computing and handset markets. After retiring, he started McKinney Park Consulting to focus on business/technology consulting and board work. Has served on for-profit and non-profit boards in the wellness and STEM education areas. Serving first year of second term.

STEPHANIE INGLIS

Lifelong member of Wolfeboro community, currently a real estate professional with Keller Williams Lakes & Mountains Realty. Instrumental in company's significant growth. Prior to her real estate career, was Nutrition Coordinator for Goodwin Community Health, providing public health services within Strafford and Carroll Counties. Extensive community connections and in-depth marketing skills, including social media. Serving second year of second term.

JEFF REILLY

Over 25 years of financial services industry experience formerly at Fidelity Investments and currently at TIAA. Has served on non-profit boards in the past. Jeff, his wife Amy, and their two adult daughters enjoy everything the lakes region has to offer. Jeff currently resides in Meredith. Serving first year of first term.

JAY SEATON

Retired Marketing executive having run global marketing organizations for both public and privately-held high-tech companies. Served on public, private and non-profit boards. Lifelong boater with extensive commercial captain experience, including being the primary captain for the Isaiah's Ark program, providing families with a child with cancer a day together on Lake Winnepesaukee. Resides in Wolfeboro, NH. Serving first year of first term.

DON SMITH

A lifelong resident of the Lakes Region currently practicing law as a partner with Sager & Smith, PLLC in Ossipee with over twenty years of experience in the legal profession. Prior to becoming an attorney, he was active in the restaurant business with his wife as owners and operators of two separate successful establishments before selling them. Served in various capacities with numerous organizations ranging from a public library, local youth baseball league, professional board of governance and community-based organizations. He has three young grandsons who he loves sharing the Lakes Region with when they visit. He resides in Center Harbor, NH. Serving first year of first term.

BOB STROUGH

Retired global sales executive with extensive experience in the aerospace industry. Prior to that, Bob served in the Air Force and subsequently was employed as a licensed yacht broker. Bob's initial exposure to the Lake goes back to the 1960s when his wife-to-be brought him to her family's cottage. He has been involved with the Mystic Seaport Museum, US Sailing, Boat US, and is a past Vice President and active member of the Wolfeboro Corinthian Yacht Club. He resides in Tuftonboro, NH. Serving first year of first term.

JOHN VAN LONKHUYZEN

Retired Human Resources executive for an international aerospace corporation. Prior to that, outplacement professional and career transition coach to Fortune 50 corporations through a top outplacement firm. Resides in Tuftonboro, NH. Serving third year of second term.